Email chain: deadline brought forward

Source: 03-email-deadline-brought-forward.txt. Sent dates inside the messages determine the chronology.

FICTIONAL TEST DATA - independent sample, not a real team record
Timezone for all messages: Europe/London
Mailbox export shows newest message first. Quoted messages are duplicates of the originals.

Message-ID: E3
Sent: Wednesday 7 October 2026, 09:10 +0100
From: Alex Rivera <alex@team.example.test>
To: Sam Patel <sam@team.example.test>
Subject: Re: Northstar final proposal

Confirmed. I'll deliver the FINAL Northstar proposal by Tuesday 13 October at 16:00.
That replaces the Friday 16 October deadline. Northstar's board needs it earlier.
Alex

> Message-ID: E2
> Sent: Tuesday 6 October 2026, 14:20 +0100
> From: Sam Patel
> Client Northstar has asked for the final proposal before its board meeting.
> Can we bring Alex's deadline forward to Tuesday 13 October, 16:00?

----- Original message -----
Message-ID: E1
Sent: Monday 5 October 2026, 10:00 +0100
From: Sam Patel <sam@team.example.test>
To: Alex Rivera <alex@team.example.test>
Subject: Northstar final proposal

Agreed in today's call: Alex will deliver the final Northstar proposal by Friday 16 October.
Please keep the agreed date in the record if it changes.

----- Reply -----
Message-ID: E2
Sent: Tuesday 6 October 2026, 14:20 +0100
From: Sam Patel <sam@team.example.test>
To: Alex Rivera <alex@team.example.test>
Subject: Re: Northstar final proposal

Client Northstar has asked for the final proposal before its board meeting.
Can we bring Alex's deadline forward to Tuesday 13 October, 16:00?

> Message-ID: E1
> Agreed in today's call: Alex will deliver the final Northstar proposal by Friday 16 October.

Email chain: deadline postponed

Source: 04-email-deadline-postponed.txt. Sent dates inside the messages determine the chronology.

FICTIONAL TEST DATA - independent sample, not a real team record
Timezone for all messages: Europe/London

Message-ID: P1
Sent: Monday 5 October 2026, 11:00 +0100
From: Sam Patel <sam@team.example.test>
To: Alex Rivera <alex@team.example.test>
Subject: Approval summary for Northstar

As agreed, Alex will complete the Northstar approval summary by Thursday 8 October. We need Jordan's answer before Alex can finalise the summary.

Message-ID: P2
Sent: Tuesday 6 October 2026, 15:40 +0100
From: Sam Patel <sam@team.example.test>
To: Alex Rivera <alex@team.example.test>
Subject: Re: Approval summary for Northstar

Jordan is away until Monday 19 October. Let's postpone this two weeks from the original Thursday deadline, keeping Alex as owner. Jordan's answer is a dependency, not a new task for Jordan in our team workspace.

Message-ID: P3
Sent: Wednesday 7 October 2026, 08:15 +0100
From: Alex Rivera <alex@team.example.test>
To: Sam Patel <sam@team.example.test>
Subject: Re: Approval summary for Northstar

Agreed, two weeks later than the original due date. I'll complete the approval summary then, once Jordan has replied. Please keep the original date and reason.

> Message-ID: P1
> Alex will complete the Northstar approval summary by Thursday 8 October.